- engineering mechanics
- geological engineering
- geology and geophysics
- mathematics
- mechanical engineering
- metallurgical engineering
- mining engineering
- nuclear engineering
- petroleum engineering
- physics

The doctor of engineering degree is available in:

- ceramic engineering
- chemical engineering
- civil engineering
- electrical engineering
- geological engineering
- mechanical engineering
- mining engineering
- nuclear engineering
- petroleum engineering

The Provost is responsible for the administration of all graduate work at UMR. In cases where your program can be demonstrably improved, the Provost can approve departures from the graduate faculty rules. Each department may have its own rules beyond the general ones listed and should be contacted if further information is desired at:

Equal Opportunity in Programs and Activities

It is the policy of the University of Missouri-Rolla to provide full and equal employment opportunities to all qualified persons without regard to race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, or physical disability, to prohibit discrimination in recruitment, employment, conditions of employment, including salary and benefits related thereto, to promote employment opportunity and to take affirmative action in this regard. Affirmative Action means the elimination of all existing discriminatory conditions, whether purposeful or inadvertent. This nondiscrimination policy applies to all persons, whether or not the individual is a member of a conventionally defined "Minority Group". In other words, no person shall be denied employment, promotion or related benefits on grounds of his or her race, color, religion, sex, age, disability or national origin. The statutes listed below are applicable to the University of Missouri:

14 — Graduate Degree Programs

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

"No person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

"No otherwise qualified handicapped individual in the United States...shall, solely by reason of the handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Section 303 of the Age Discrimination Act of 1975

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of age, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 Section 102 Discrimination

General Rule. – No covered entity shall discriminate against a qualified individual with a disability because of the disability of such individual in regard to job application procedures, the hiring, advancement, or discharge of employees, employee compensation, job training, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

UMR conducts its programs and activities involving admission and treatment of students, employment, teaching, research, and public service in a non-discriminatory manner as prescribed by Federal law and regulation. Inquiries concerning the above maybe addressed to:
